is black! Palestine! Palestine!"
Newsweek magazine reported Nasser has made a six-point proposal for peace with Israel and hinted he might agree to talk directly with the Israelis. Nasser told the magazine the Arab states would agree to a five-point program if Israel would withdraw from the territory it seized from Jordan, Egypt and Syria in the 1967 war. Nasser offered a declaration of nonbelligerence, freedom of navigation on international waterways, recognition of each Middle East country's right to live in peace, a guarantee of territorial integrity within "recognized and secure borders" and a just solution to the Palestine refugee problem. Nasser's offer followed the lines of the U.N. Security Council's November 1967 resolution on the Middle East. But Israel refuses to give up the Arab territories — its chief bargaining card — until it has formal peace agreements with the Arab nations and until it negotiates what it considers "recognized and secure borders." Nasser told Newsweek senior correspondent Arnaud de Borchgrave he would not guarantee to talk directly with Israel if there is withdrawal. "But I can tell you," he added, "we sat down with the Israelis after the 1948 war under the armistice agreement until the 1956 war, and that we are prepared to do so again." Nasser also said Egypt would restore diplomatic relations with the United States, which Egypt broke during the 1967 War, if Washington expressed disapproval of the Israeli occupation.

Red China Moves Fast on Missiles

LONDON (AP) — Red China has progressed faster than expected in nuclear weaponry and might join the long-range missile club as early as 1969, Asian and European diplomats in London say. They said intelligence information pooled by the United States and several countries suggests China may test fire a 6,000-mile intercontinental ballistic missile this year, if the test is successful, the Chinese should begin stockpiling the weapons by 1972, the sources said.

William Risinger will speak on "History of the Christian Religion," and on Friday he will lecture on the Sacraments. Saturday night, Dr. George Slaby, Professor of the Humanity Department of Southern State College in Magnolia, will lecture on the Scriptures. Refreshments will be served all three nights.

ship, so our only real duties are cleaning up the dormitories and a fire watch and a phone watch set in each dormitory." North Koreans freed the Pueblo's 82 men last December, along with the body of the 83rd crewman, who was killed during the capture. But they kept the ship. Being a ship's company without a ship is strange, says Lacy, "but we've felt strange that way for the last year. It's not like being on a ship, and it never will be." Except for leave and liberty, which are generous, the men will remain in their barracks near the court of inquiry until its proceedings are complete — at least another three weeks. Some of them have dubbed themselves "Bucher's Bastards," in a show of loyalty to their skipper during his appearances before the court. "Dear captain," they wrote him on a piece of Pueblo stationery, "We've made it this far together, and we'll finish it together. (signed) Bucher's Bastards." Some crew members, like Murphy and Lt. Harris, have homes in the Coronado-San Diego area. They have been getting overnight and weekend liberty to be with their families. So has Bucher, but he hasn't seen much of his wife and two teen-age sons. He remains until midnight sometimes in his barracks office. "The biggest job we have as a ship's company is to try to answer the letters and the telegrams we've received," says Lacy. "We've probably gotten 7,000 pieces of mail. Not all of the crewmen spend their time in the ship's office.

Some are putting together a cruise book. Others attend lectures for the crew given almost daily. Some are on veteran's benefits, for those awaiting discharge. Others are on traffic safety, which Lacy says "is a big problem for someone out of the country for awhile." Some crewmen have visited restaurants, theaters and a sports arena on free invitations. Thirty crewmen rode on a lighter-than-air balloon. Eleven took on the Fleet Air Control and Surveillance team in a football game — and lost 10-0. "Just give us a little more time," said Pueblo Quartermaster Charles Law. this week a recommendation for early approval of the treaty to block the spread of nuclear weapons. The United States signed the pact last year but Senate approval and final U.S. ratification were delayed after the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in August. Nixon is also actively interested in starting technical talks with Moscow on limiting the deployment of nuclear missiles as soon as he considers that the world political climate is favorable. Thorny Tradition It is said the Glastonbury thorn always blossomed at Christmas time until adoption of the Gregorian calendar. Some used this to contend the calendar should not have been changed.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

IS MODERN WOMAN TOO MUCH FOR MERE MAN?

Dear Helen: I am in the process of getting my fourth divorce — at my husband's urgent plea. He says I am frightening. My problem is, I am not afraid of life, and so my husbands have all ended up being afraid of me. I could give up men, but I like them. Where do you find a REAL man, one whose male ego doesn't demand an Oriental-type wife? I was so sure this time that I had found the counter pattern to my other husbands. He is a near genius in his chosen field; we were sexually compatible; I thought we understood each other's needs. We even had professional analysis to determine that we could make a go of it.

But it seems a man basically wants a brainless slave whose only purpose is to serve and satisfy him. He doesn't mind if she mysteriously provides a good portion of the family income, but somehow she is supposed to turn off her brains the moment she gets home. I have a job that requires me to think — my husband insisted I keep it — yet I must never mention it. If I tried to talk intelligently, he belittled me. His cutting remarks in company were aimed at turning me quiet, which they did.

I'm here to tell you that most men hate women, unless they can completely dominate them — and then they begin to despise the doormat they have created. Is there a man anywhere who can treat his wife as an equal, and not feel threatened? — FOUR TIME

Dear Loser: Yes, but that kind is snapped up fast, and kept a lifetime. — H.

P.S. Single girls have your problem too. Read on: Dear Helen: I am writing in response to the "Resentful Miss R.T.", whose objection to "male superiority" has been a problem of mine for years. Each sex automatically credits the man with the last word. When a woman is occasionally admitted to a stimulating conversation, it is too often as a spectator. A man's ideas are the only ones respected, and the girl is rarely asked, "What is your opinion?" Women are sought in the "mating season," or when a man gets tired of his own housekeeping, she may also be used as a sounding board for the ideas he will discuss with men.

Many women seem satisfied with this arrangement, which is why they are so often dull. It seems as though a man is even more reluctant to talk intelligently to a pretty girl. I'm considered attractive, so I know! I have found that if you are lucky enough to find one who will listen to you tete a tete (though he will STILL never ask your opinion), he does not degrade himself in public by paying attention to your words.

He may even chide you later for being "too masculine." In other words, letting your brains show. I hope I don't sound too terribly bitter, but I feel we women with things to say have a valid complaint. — MARY

Dear Helen: May a man answer the "Resentful Miss R.T." who wants us to listen to her? She says we males are well-headed, and she calls herself "intelligent" and a "thinker." Doesn't she realize that if any man tells other men he is "an intelligent thinker" he would be avoided like the plague? Maybe she comes on too strong.

As a male, I desire a woman

Coming, Going

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — "The FBI," one of ABC's Sunday night stalwarts, has the blessing and cooperation of that agency, and it's plots, it says on the screen, are "inspired by FBI cases."

"Inspired" would hardly be the word to describe the usual run of "FBI" scripts. They are usually routine cops-and-criminals pieces with considerable violence tossed in when the action slows and, of course, at the end of each program.

Sunday night's episode was fairly typical, although it did have an unusual twist. A Latin-American dictator hired the Mafia—in the person of a soft spoken killer named Richard Schaefer, alias Smith—to snatch an outspoken refugee publisher and return him to the dictatorship.

The rest was routine, good guys against bad guys. Women and children were held hostage, there was a chase and, of course, the last minute flurry of gun shots.

Efrem Zimbalist Jr., as the FBI agent never really has to stretch his acting muscles. It was followed, on NBC, by an episode of "Bonanza" that was a bit of a departure from its usual format and one that, except for a few scenes, gave the regular stars a bit of a holiday.

"Company of Forgotten Men" concerned a group of shabby Civil War veterans, regrouped by a sergeant who believes that if they raid the U.S. mint in Carson City and seize its gold, they can bully the government into giving them pensions.

The plan worked beautifully since they had in their party an expert safe blower. In fact, if two of the Cartwrights hadn't ridden into town looking for candy, their hired man—he had been taken along on the raid, bound and gagged—they would have gotten away.

Of course, crime can no more pay on "Bonanza" than it can on "The FBI," so the former had to conclude, too, with a shootout. However, the show had pace and some style and there were attempts to inject some characterizations among the members of the raiding party.

Broadcasts of feature movies on television occupying two-hour blocks of prime network time seven nights a week, are not quite the treats they were when the vogue started. Audiences now seem to be tuning in the blockbusters with the star power and keeping away from turkeys.

To date this season, the most popular movie broadcast has been ABC's "Cat Ballou" early in October, with NBC's "To Kill a Mockingbird" in November-second. Least popular according to Nielsen reports were ABC's rebroadcast of "The King and I" and CBS' "The Defector."

Ralph Routon Editor of Hi-Lights

Ralph Routon was chosen editor-in-chief of the 1970 Hope Hi-Lights staff last Thursday. His associate editors will include Jo Ann Burke, Mollie Ehler, Mary Beth Millican, and Phil Cato.

They were tapped at school by members of the 1969 staff including Junanne Reynolds, editor-in-chief, associated editors Donna Connelly, Janet Foley, Sherry Crank, Susan McCain, Pam Paris, and business manager, Gary Wheeler.

The new staff will accompany Mrs. Mary Nell Turner, publications advisor, to "A Nitty Gritty Workshop in High School Journalism" at Ouachita Baptist University February 14-15.

Max Harrelson, chief of the United Nations' Associated Press Bureau, will be the banquet and luncheon speaker. Workshop leaders include Jon Kennedy, Arkansas Democrat; Leroy Donald, Arkansas Gazette; Henry Haines, Blytheville Courier News; Robert McCork, Arkansas Democrat.

The group will be competing in writing contests to be judged by a panel of professional newsmen.

"These students are currently enrolled in Journalism I and have been selected on the basis of their development as news writers," Mrs. Turner said.

Meningitis Outbreak at Malvern

MALVERN, Ark. (AP) — A case of meningococcal meningitis has been confirmed at the combined Ouachita junior and senior high school at Donaldson (Hot Springs County), school Supt. James Wilson said Sunday.

He said another case of the contagious disease is suspected.

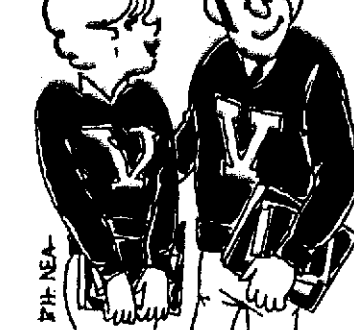

The confirmed case was Mrs. Ruth Johnson, about 35, a counselor and teacher at the school. She missed classes Thursday and was admitted to a Little Rock hospital Friday.

The suspected case is Michael York, a seventh-grade student, who also was admitted to a Little Rock hospital for treatment.

Sulawesi is the Indonesian name for the island of Celebes.

Youth Beat

WHERE IT'S AT: The old Boy Meets Girl (and vice versa) Story will have some new and unlikely (until now) settings during the next few years with Vassar admitting men for the first time (except for a few pre-World War II GIs) while the birds who want to be where the boys are fight it out for spots at Princeton and Yale. Many lesser known—but in most cases more swinging—schools are going the coed route, too.

POLL-WAXED: Recent year-end music polls reveal that groups that have split up of late are still in very big demand, at least as far as records go. The Cream, which since has curdled, took a slew of best vocal and small combo LP honors with "Wheels of Fire" and other discs. The group is so hot at the moment that speculation has it that it may be blended back together again (music moguls can't live on the milk of human kindness alone).

SON OF POLL-WAXED: Meanwhile, "Cheap Thrills," the Big Brother and the Holding Company LP, continues to rock along in sales even though Janis Joplin has split and left the little brothers holding the bag. Recent billing lists the new Joplin crew as Janis Joplin and Her Group, a far cry from the inventiveness of the Holding Company days... and the Mamas and the Papas, who are probably having a hard time remembering the last time they sang together, still rate as one of the most popular groups on record.

THINK CHUBBY: O.K. gals, want to warble your way to fame and fortune? If you do, take a tip from the chicks who have chirped their way to the top... get fat! Look, for example, at Janis Joplin, Mama Cass and Spanky—all very "in" these days and all about as slinky as Gentle Ben. Grace Slick is (slink, that is) but how many others can you name?

TIME MACHINE: Recent revival and new-found appreciation for the hard rock of the '50s has been a big break for some of the senior citizens of the musical set. Bill Haley, for instance, is back in style as well as alive and well in the Miami area. Haley practically invented rock 'n' roll more years ago than his newest fans can remember. The return of hard rock has given Bill a new audience, most of whom were under five when he and the Comets first shook the establishment with "Rock Around the Clock."

Lincoln of Camden Down Cats

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Dominating play from the first minute to the last, the Camden Lincoln Tigers humbled the Hope Bobcats 104-46 in a 4-AA Western Division battle last Saturday night at Jones Field House.

In the first game, though, the fired-up Hope Bobkittens made it six out of seven by ripping the Lincoln Tiger Cubs 66-51. Before the game the Kittens had hoped for few turnovers and no foul trouble, and both wishes were realized in what Coach Jim Jordan termed "our best effort of the season." The juniors earlier had lost a 53-47 decision to the Tiger Cubs, but gained revenge in a sweet win.

After two minutes Lincoln led 6-2, but the Bobkittens exploded into the lead with inside success and good foul shooting.

Charity shots by Steve Harris and Tim White gave Hope a 17-9 edge, before the visitors pulled to 19-12 at the quarter.

The next two minutes could have been costly for the Kittens, as two turnovers helped Lincoln hit eight straight points for a 20-19 margin. White and Lynn Norton each scored underneath baskets to change that, and Norton scored ten in a row to give Hope a 31-25 spread at halftime.

Throughout the game the Bobkittens employed a full-court press, but never was it as successful as in the third segment. From a 35-29 lead with 4:45 left in the period, Hope suddenly caused four turnovers and took over complete control of the backboards.

Only two minutes later the damage had been done, as a 10-0 spree provided the locals with a 45-29 cushion, and Lincoln was through. It was the second straight 4-AA victory for the Kittens, now 4-2 in the district and 9-6 overall.

Norton led Coach Jordan's grading system with a plus 14, followed closely by Tommy Frazier with a 5. Tim White, Steve Harris, and Buddy Ingram recorded threes to round out the starting lineup. Norton led the rebound chart with 10, followed by White and Harris with 4 apiece. Ingram had 8 assists to lead that column, and Norton was credited with 6.

Camden Lincoln had suffered a 77-63 loss to Fairview on Friday night, and they were ready to go against the Bobcats.

The Tigers took five turnovers in two minutes to leap to a 13-0 margin, which minutes later grew to 27-3.

Coach Tyrone Webster of Lincoln replaced his starters early in the second quarter leading 39-14, and the lead increased to 49-17 at the half.

Demoralized from bad luck on all sides, the Bobcats remained behind 68-32 entering the final quarter, as Webster returned his starters to action for a shot at 100 points.

Full of confidence and shooting 70 per cent from the field, Lincoln scored 17 points consecutively to jump from 87-45 to 104-45. A last free throw sealed the score, as the Tigers moved to 5-1 in 4-AA West while Hope fell to 0-6.

This week the Bobcats rest

Lombardi's Switch Rumor Stirs Packers

GREEN BAY Wis. ZAP —

Any plan Vince Lombardi might have been harboring Sunday about quitting the Green Bay Packers and taking command of the Washington Redskins was labeled by his pro football associates as officially a surprise.

Packers' spokesmen said they hoped to confer today with their general manager, who had remained out of touch as rumors spread that he would ask to be relieved of his contract so he could become coach, general manager and part owner of the Washington club.

Mrs. Lombardi, who stayed at home during the weekend while her husband was in New York, said she knew nothing more of the rumor than what she read in Sunday newspapers. A report that Lombardi would get 13 per cent of the Redskins stock, she said, "was interesting."

Packers' sources noted Lombardi decided on his own to cease coaching the National Football League club. One source said the general manager probably could regain the coaching post if he wanted too, but noted the club's widespread stock-distribution system would never allow him the glamor of Packer ownership.

Tony Canadeo, a member of the Green Bay executive committee, said Sunday that, prior to the rumors, no meeting had been scheduled today to hear Lombardi's plans.

"I'd imagine with all the publicity given the story over the weekend, Vince will want to sit down and talk to us. All we know is what we've read or heard," said Richard Bourguignon, vice president of Green Bay Packers Inc.

Lombardi coached the Packers to an unprecedented five NFL championships in seven years and two Super Bowl crowns before abandoning the post after the 1967-68 season to become full-time general manager.

In the subsequent 1968-69 season, the Packers slumped to their worst season since before the Lombardi decade.

The Washington Post said in its Sunday editions that Lombardi would ask Green Bay to free him from the remaining five years of his contract.

The Washington Evening Star said the arrangement with the Redskins needed nothing more than Lombardi's signature.

Celtics Lose Star Player at 11th Hour

By DAVE O'HARA

Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics, struggling in defense of their National Basketball Association championship, found themselves in serious trouble today with Player-Coach Bill Russell hospitalized and lost for at least a week.

Russell, who has led the Celtics to 10 titles with brilliant defensive play in his dozen years as a pro, suffered severely strained ligaments in his right knee in a 95-64 loss to the New York Knicks Sunday at Boston Garden.

Wiz New York in front 95-92, the 6-foot-9 Russell took a pass and scored a layup. He fell hard to the floor and writhed in pain as the Knicks ran out the final 12 seconds.

Russell, 35, finally was carried on a stretcher to the dressing room and transferred 30 minutes later to University Hospital, where X-rays were negative.

Dr. Thomas Silva, the team physician, said a bone specialist would examine the injury in 24 hours. Barring unforeseen swelling he was "very optimistic" that Russell would be able to return to the Celtics in a week or 10 days.

General Manager Red Auerback, who turned over the coaching reins to Russell after the 1965-66 season, announced he would return to the bench on a temporary basis.

In other games Baltimore walloped Detroit 128-106, Philadelphia overcame Chicago 112-104, Atlanta defeated San Diego 115-103, Phoenix nipped Milwaukee 122-121 and San Francisco outlasted Los Angeles 122-117 in three overtimes.

On Saturday, the Knicks clobbered the Celtics 109-82, Los Angeles beat San Francisco 106-101 in overtime, Indiana belted Detroit 119-99, Cincinnati tripped Seattle 111-96 and San Diego downed Milwaukee 101-95.

In the American Basketball Association Sunday, Dallas trimmed Kentucky 104-101, Houston defeated Miami 94-89, Miami bounced Indiana 130-113, New York whipped Los Angeles 96-85 and Denver topped Oakland 119-105.

Although the game turned into a rough and ragged affair in the final period, Russell was injured on a play lacking stiff body contact. He said he thought he may have been hit on the leg as he lunged.

The surging Knicks, who have won 20 of their last 24 games, moved ahead of Boston into third place in the Eastern Division.

Dave DeBusschere put the Knicks ahead to stay 89-87 with a three-point play and Bill Bradley's two free throws with 14 seconds left gave New York a 95-92 lead.

Ray Scott with 26 points, Earl Monroe with 24 and Wes Unseld with 22 and 18 rebounds paced Baltimore to an easy victory. Philadelphia scored the last nine points in the final 44 seconds to beat the Bulls. Wally Jones had 27 points to lead the

Baseballers Threatening to Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Dissident major league baseball players, threatening strike action in their bid for higher pension benefits, were set to hold a strategy meeting today in a midtown hotel.

Marvin Miller, executive director of the Players Association, expected about 100 major leaguers, including the player representatives from each of the 24 clubs to attend the 11 a.m. EST, session.

The players recently rejected the club owners' offer of a $1 million increase in contributions to the pension fund by an overwhelming margin. The Association is talking strike, and the players have been urged not to sign 1969 contracts until their pension demands are met.

Willie Mays, Bob Gibson and Hank Aaron are among the top stars who have voiced support of the no-sign campaign.

With the start of Spring Training less than a month away and player-owner pension negotiations at a standstill, the New York meeting was called to inform the players of the situation and discuss possible courses of action should the deadlock continue.

The current pension agreement expires March 31. Player contracts are supposed to be mailed by all clubs before Feb. 15 and training camps are due to open for pitchers and catchers Feb. 20, with the rest of the players to report a week later.

At least one owner has threatened to suspend operations for the entire season if the players fail to report for spring training. Miller, in turn, has accused the owners of attempting to wreck the Players Association.

"I would say we are as far apart as ever on the main issues," Miller said last week after three fruitless meetings with the owners' committee.

Atlanta pulled ahead for good in the second period and held off San Diego behind Lou Hudson's 35 points and 21 by reserve Paul Silas.

Gail Goodrich's basket with 19 seconds left broke a 116-all tie and he and Dick Van Arsdale kept Phoenix ahead with free throws. Goodrich finished with 37 points.

Nate Thurmond, who scored 24 points and grabbed 34 rebounds, and Jim King scored seven points as San Francisco led all of the third overtime. The regular game ended tied at 86 and Los Angeles blew leads in the first two extra periods, which ended tied at 99 and 110.

2nd Straight Title Looms for Reddies

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Henderson Reddies are now headed down the stretch in their bid for a second straight Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball title.

With three weeks of play left, the Reddies sport an 11-1 league record and a 16-3 overall record.

This gives Henderson a two-game lead over runner-up Ouachita, which took over sole possession of second place with a pair of key victories last week. Ouachita now is 9-3 in league play.

In games tonight, Ozarks is at Arkansas A&M, State College plays at Arkansas Tech, Henderson at Southern State, Hendrix at Arkansas College and Harding at Ouachita.

Tech is holding down third place in the conference with a 8-4 record. Harding, SSC and SCA all have 7-5 records. Henderson and Arkansas College are next with 4-8 marks, then come A&M at 3-9 and Ozarks at 0-12.

to 3-2. Howe's goal was his 25th of the season. But Glen Sather put it out of reach for the Bruins in the final two minutes of the game.

The Rangers fell behind Pittsburgh 2-0 on goals by Val Fonteyne and Jean Pronovost but New York roared back with three goals in each of the last two periods.

Toronto lost its third straight game against an expansion team when St. Louis bunched three third period goals to break a tie and beat the slumping Maple Leafs. Cary Sabourin rapped the tie-breaker past Johnny Bower at 10:39 of the final period and less than two minutes later, Al Arbour scored his first goal of the season.

After Dave Keon drew the Leafs close again, Jean Guy Talbot grabbed it up for St. Louis. The Blues now lead the West Division by a fat 20 points over second place Oakland.

Jean Beliveau's 16th career hat trick led Montreal past Chicago in a nationally televised afternoon game. The three goals gave the tall Canadiens' center 23 for the season and 453 for his career. Yvan Cournoyer had a pair for Montreal, running his season's total to 30.

Doug Mohns scored twice for the Black Hawks, who were hampered by a freak injury to Bobby Hull in the first period. Hull was cut on the hand when he m m a t e Ken Wharram jumped over the boards and caught him with his skate.

Danny Grant scored his 20th goal of the season and Minnesota's tough defense whipped Philadelphia as the North Stars moved within five points of the fourth place Flyers in the West Division.

The three-point field goal can be of great help to an American Basketball Association team, but not if it's the only basket it makes in an entire quarter.

The Los Angeles Stars found that out Sunday when the only basket they were able to make in the fourth period against the New York Nets was Larry Miller's three-point with 6 minutes left.

The Stars were able to add only 10 other points in the quarter, on foul shots, as the Nets scored 22 and won 96-85.

Dallas ripped Louisville 104-101, Houston topped Minnesota 97-87, Miami trounced Indianapolis 130-113 and Denver upset Oakland 119-105 in other ABA action Sunday.

In the National Basketball Association, Baltimore downed Detroit 128-106, Philadelphia took Chicago 112-104, Atlanta whipped San Diego 115-103, Phoenix edged Milwaukee 122-121 and San Francisco outlasted Los Angeles 122-117 in three overtimes.

Wall Simon paced the Nets with 28 points, including 12 in the third quarter, when they erased a 48-43 halftime deficit. Miller and Ed Johnson each scored 19 for Los Angeles.

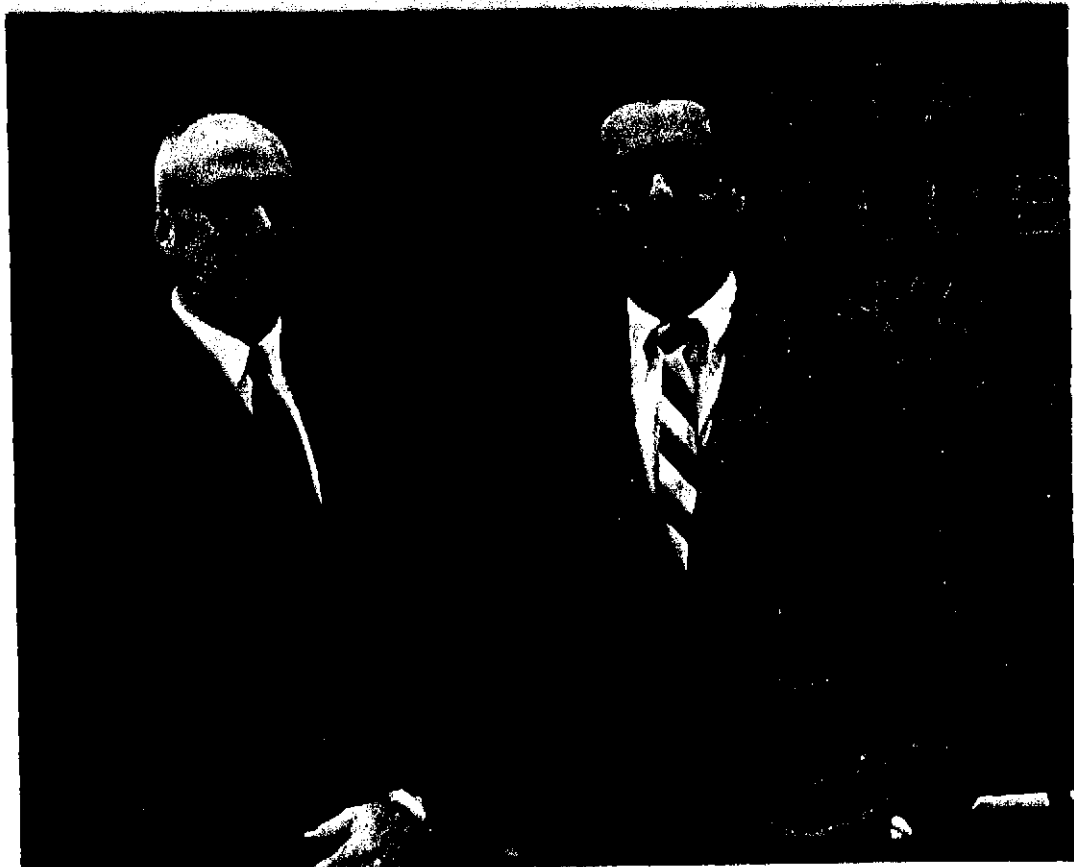

Glenn Combs scored 31 points, including two field goals in the final minute, to pace Dallas over Kentucky. Gene Moore led the losers with 25.

The loss kept Kentucky from moving into first place in the Eastern Division ahead of Minnesota, whose defeat by Houston was the Pipers' seventh in nine games.

Levern Tart packed the Houston victory with 20 points. Chico Vaughn led the Pipers with 26.

Indiana overcame a 15-point deficit to tie Miami at 98-98 with 8:30 left, but then Skip Thoren and Les Hunter came off the bench to combine for 19 points and lead the Floridians to victory.

Bodcaw Boys Win Nevada Tourney

Bodcaw senior boys won the Nevada County basketball tournament finals Saturday night in the Cale Gym by defeating Cale 68 to 61.

High scorers for Bodcaw were Quinton Moss with 29 points, Bruce Newton, Johnny Holland and Bobby Carlton with 12 each. Leading Cale were Glass with 22, Williams 21 and Tidwell with 12 points.

Roger Brown of Indiana led all scorers with 33 points.

Larry Jones poured in 39 points as Denver sent Oakland to just its sixth defeat of the season. Henry Logan scored 27 for Oakland, which lost its star Rick Barry with two technical fouls in the third quarter.

A large number of guests were present at the Rotary Club luncheon meeting last Friday at the Town and Country restaurant to hear Dr. Palmer Pilcher, vice-president for Academic Affairs at the University of Arkansas and an examiner for the North Central Association of School Accreditation. He spoke briefly on the growth and progress of the university and showed a fine film in color of the many facets of academic and sports activities there.

guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Sam Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gardner, Mike Kelly, Earl Downs, Dale Franks, Charles Sharpe, Jr., Dr. Jon Leim, Bob Westbrook, Susan McCain, and Mrs. Bill Tolleson.

In a short meeting after the luncheon, President Harold Eakley and the board of directors made final plans for the appearance of Chet Lauck at the Rotary Ladies Night February 21.

Judge Wilson, a member of the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees, arranged the Rotary program and introduced Dr. Pilcher.

8th Ranked N.M. Aggies Finally Lose

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Littlest Lobo wears No. 00 on his basketball shirt . . . and stands 10 feet tall in New Mexico today.

Petie Gibson, a 5-foot-8 sophomore, pumped in a 30-foot jump shot at the buzzer last Saturday at Albuquerque, giving the Lobos a 68-66 triumph over arch-rival New Mexico State.

It was the pint-sized playmaker's only field goal in the game, but it completed a two-game-in-four-days sweep for New Mexico over the eighth-ranked, previously unbeaten Aggies. The Lobos won 86-66 Wednesday on State's Las Cruces court.

Top-ranked UCLA continued to roll up winning numbers, smashing Stanford 98-61 Saturday night after a 109-74 romp over California Friday night. The Bruins have won 32 in a row, including 16 this season, 36 straight in Pacific 8 Conference play and 80 in succession on their home court.

UCLA and third ranked Santa Clara, idle last weekend, are the only unbeaten major college powers.

No. 2 North Carolina boosted its season mark to 14-1 with a 107-87 conquest of Maryland, but fourth-ranked Davidson fell to Iowa 76-61 at Chicago.

No. 5 Kentucky beat Vanderbilt 103-89, No. 6 St. John's, N.Y., topped Temple 65-49, No. 7 Illinois trimmed Wisconsin 86-73 and No. 9 LaSalle clobbered New Orleans Loyola 102-65 in other Saturday action.

Gibson, smallest man ever to play for Chicago Bob King at New Mexico, swept the Lobos to their 13th victory in 19 games with a high-arching shot that dropped cleanly through the cords as the clock ran out.

"I've got a bruise on the side of my ribs where Coach King hit me as he jumped up saying, 'It's going in,'" said Lobos assistant coach Norm Ellenberg. "I've got a few bruises, too," said Gibson, a grandson of former semipro baseball great Josh Gibson, who was half-carried, half-dragged from the court by New Mexico fans after the winning shot.

Lew Alcindor scored 27 points for UCLA against Stanford as the Bruins tightened their hold on the Pacific 8 lead. Bill Buntin's 30 points and 12 rebounds paced North Carolina's attack and Glenn Vidovic hit for 23 to trigger Iowa's upset of Davidson.

Dan Issel and Mike Casey led Kentucky past Vanderbilt with 28 and 24 points, respectively, and Joe DePre's 16 kept St. John's rolling against Temple.

Soph Greg Jackson put in 21 of his 36 points in the second half, leading Illinois past Wisconsin, and LaSalle buried Loyola after running off 17 successive first half points for a 35-17 bulge.

Purdue grabbed the Big Ten Conference lead with a 4-0 mark by subduing Ohio State 95-85 in overtime. The Buckeyes and Iowa are 4-1, Illinois 3-2 in league play.

Tulsa reeled off its eighth straight victory in the Missouri Valley Conference, whipping Wichita State 94-69 for a 16-2 over-all mark.

Kansas handed Colorado its first Big Eight Conference loss, 80-70, and the Buffaloes' troubles were compounded Sunday when 7-foot-2 Ron Smith was declared scholastically ineligible.

Have the Boston Bruins forgotten how to lose?

Once experts at the fine art of taking it on the chin, the boisterous Bruins have stormed into a six-point lead in the National Hockey League's East Division with an unbeaten string of 17 games that is approaching record proportions.

The Bruins' latest victory was a 4-2 triumph over Detroit Sunday night. In other action, New York pounded Pittsburgh 7-3, St. Louis stung Toronto 5-3, Montreal bopped Chicago 6-4 and Minnesota shaded Philadelphia 3-2.

In Saturday's games, Montreal ripped New York 6-2, St. Louis blanked Detroit 2-0, Chicago and Minnesota battled to a 5-5 tie, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh tied 2-2 and Los Angeles outlasted Oakland 6-5.

Olympic Star Performers Not So Hot

By TOM SALADINO

Associated Press Sports Writer

Olympic gold medal winners had their ups and downs over the weekend. Willie Davenport kept on winning while Bob Seagren and Ralph Doubell bounced back . . . Dick Fosbury, however, continued to flop.

Davenport, the 110-meter Olympic champion from Southern University, sprinted to his ninth straight hurdles victory, winning Friday night at New York's Millrose-Wanamaker Games and then breaking the world mark in the 45-yard high hurdles at the Boston A.A. Games Saturday night.

Seagren, the Olympic pole vault fiftist, and holder of both the indoor and outdoor world records, failed to qualify in New York Friday night, missing three attempts at 16 feet.

However, the handsome Southern California student came back to capture his specialty Saturday in the Oklahoma City Invitational with a 17-foot effort.

Doubell, the Australian 800-meter winner in the Olympics, was stalled by transportation problems and didn't compete in New York. The Melbourne native had no such trouble reaching Portland, Ore., for the Oregon Invitational and romped to an easy victory in the 1,000-yard run in 2:11.1.

Fosbury has a different problem. Famed for his Fosbury Flop, in winning the Olympic high jump crown at Mexico City, the 21-year-old Oregon State student, has now lost all six of his indoor competitions since his 7-4 1/4 leap over the bar in Mexico. He hasn't been over seven feet, either.

Fosbury arrived in time for both the New York and Portland meets, but at the Millrose Games Fosbury failed in three attempts to clear 6-10. Then Saturday at Portland, he again couldn't clear the 6-10 barrier. Other outstanding performances over the weekend included:

George Young's 14th straight victory and sixth this season in the two-mile run. The 31-year-old Casa Grande, Ariz., school teacher took his specialty in 8:37.2, a Millrose record, which earned him the top performer award of the 62nd annual event. Lee Evans, the 400-meter Olympic champion, took the 800-yard run in 1:11.7 and Villanova's Marty Liquori won the mile in 4:00.8. Bob Beamon, another gold medal winner and world record holder in the high jump, scratched after one attempt in his specialty before a packed house of 17,670 at Madison Square Garden.

Beamon went up to Boston, but didn't participate because of a pulled leg muscle. Davenport, however, took the spotlight with his 5.3 mark in the 45-yard highs. He broke his own record of 5.4.

Ronnie Jordan, the Florida University high jumper, continued to sparkle, winning in New York and Boston.

Alex. H. WashburnGround-Hog, Phooie!
Secretary of State's Great Publication

Fellow townsmen reminded me at the post office Sunday afternoon that it was Ground-Hog Day, that he saw his shadow, and, "I guess we're in for another six weeks of Winter."

If I merely grunted it was because I was thinking some hard thoughts, (1) That it was bad news, and (2) Of what importance is an old wives' tale anyway?

Sixty years ago when I was a farm boy the ground-hog was a lovable clown who grew fat hanging around the family garden stealing early lettuce and cabbage — a fellow who when chased by small boys and their dog always managed to escape to a secret burrow under a stone fence. Once we made the mistake of wasting a whole day digging into a burrow — only to find it empty, the convict having decamped through one of his several escape-hatches.

Weather-maker he might have claimed to be to folks back yonder when the horizon was limited to the distance that a horse-vehicle might travel in a day, perhaps 20 or 30 miles — but not now.

Not now — when a motorist traversing 500 miles on a 10-hour journey alternates between sun, rain, steel, and snow.

Today's television weather map reduces the one-time oracular ground-hog to just what he is — a fat clown.

I never believed in him, anyway. And memory still holds a mild resentment against him because he forced small boys to help build a fence to protect the family garden from the fat robber baron who lived under a hill.

The most valuable publication that comes out of the Arkansas Secretary of State's office is the "Historical Report" issued every 10 years. Kelly Bryant has just sent us the 1968 edition, replacing the one issued in 1958.

The book lists every public official in the state and all 75 counties since the Year One. It is the encyclopedia of Arkansas government. Here is Secretary of State Bryant's description of the 1968 book:

The new edition of the "Historical Report of the Secretary of State" is now being distributed by Kelly Bryant, Secretary of State.

The approximate 800 - page book is the result of nearly two years of research and work by the staff of the Secretary of State's office and a number of special editors and consultants.

The book is a complete revision and up-dating of the similar report published in 1958. Distribution is now being made to all State and County Officials, school and public libraries, and newspapers. Copies are for sale by the Secretary of State's office for the nominal price of $6.00.

The book was made possible by Act No. 496 of 1967, and contains many rosters of elected State, County, and District Officials and other statistical and historical data interesting and informative to all segments of our people. Seventeen pages are in full color to illustrate state buildings, flag, and symbols.

The book also carries a resume of the 56 Departments of State and the 107 honorary Boards and Commissions. Secretary of State Bryant stated, "I feel that we have produced an outstanding historical record, and that it will be most useful to the citizens of Arkansas for many years to come."

Editor The Star: Attached is a tabulation of the questionnaire you ran on two occasions in the Hope Star as a public service. I am grateful to you for affording me this opportunity of bringing the matter of the proposed tax increases to the attention of Hempstead County Citizens.

The replies were perhaps a good sampling of sentiment for it is noted they were from all over the county, from all walks of life, from all age groups, from low and middle and high income families, and from both Democrats and Republicans.

It was interesting to me to learn that both Democrats and Republicans are divided among themselves as were many husbands and wives. Sincerely yours,

A total of 198 marked and signed questionnaires have been received and tabulated as of this date, February 1, 1969.

Before raising any taxes 160 favored putting into effect the recommendations of the Governor's Committee on the Study of Efficiency in State Government, which implemented might save in excess of 31 million dollars, 28 were opposed.

142 favored obtaining the 20 to 25 million dollars of new money, estimated by me to be our essential needs, without tax increases, if possible, or by some tax increases on luxury items plus eliminating exemptions in sales and use taxes, 39 opposed this approach.

Greatest opposition was expressed against increasing the personal income tax payments as 178 were against and 20 were for said proposal which was projected to raise $24,000,000.

130 opposed eliminating all income tax credits except for low income tax groups, 51 favored this proposal which was estimated to produce $10,000,000. 95 were opposed to increasing the corporation income tax from the graduated rate of from 1 to 5 per cent to a flat 7 per cent rate, 90 favored this approach which is projected to raise $12,220,000.

168 were opposed to increasing the sales tax to 4 per cent while only 27 favored this approach designed to raise $34,500,000.

101 were against expanding the sales and use tax coverage to include many items and services not now covered. However, 85 favored this approach estimated to produce $12,740,000.

140 were opposed to the sales tax rebate which would return an estimated $9,340,000 or $20 per each member of household in which family income is less than $1,000 per member of household, 46 indicated they favored the rebate.

102 opposed the documentary stamp tax on the sale and transfer of all real estate while 87 favored it, this is estimated to produce $500,000 in new revenue.

In the so called luxury taxes 146 favored a 15 per cent levy on cigars, snuff, and chewing tobacco estimated to produce $950,000, 52 were opposed.

$30 favored the $5.00 per 32 gallons increase in the beer tax estimated to produce $2,500,000, while 41 were opposed.

161 favored raising the parimutuel levy from 6 to 9 per cent at horse and dog tracks which is estimated to produce an additional $1,750,000, 35 were opposed.

126 indicated a desire that the cigarette tax be increased 5 cents estimated to produce $10,000,000, while 56 were opposed, with 85 favoring that 2 cents thereof be deducted in an estimated amount of $4,000,000 to go to cities, while 76 opposed said deduction.

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — "Bucher's Bastards" are a ship's company without a ship. It feels a little strange to the men, but they're trying to operate like a ship's crew anyway.

Their intelligence ship, captured last year by North Korea, is in the Communist country.

In their two-story stucco barracks at the North Island Naval Air Station, the 81 men of the USS Pueblo set up a ship's office in a small room.

Adjacent are offices for the skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, and the executive officer, Lt.

(AP) — U.S. Army leaders are stiffening their resistance to further cuts in the combat troops America has stationed in Europe.

This was made plain here this past week by both Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer, the American who is the Supreme Allied Commander Europe.

The Army desire to keep what it has got at least, is perhaps the most significant development to come out of the current military exercise, Caribidee, that will end Tuesday.

Lemnitzer declared that although air transport capability has vastly improved, the bringing of forces from the United States to Europe was a reinforcing action, nothing more.

Lemnitzer emphasized that the U.S. troops now here are at a bare minimum to keep up their commitments. U.S. forces in West Germany have 230,000 men.

Lemnitzer asked newsmen not to overlook the great number of supply personnel it took to get the equipment ready for the incoming troops to use and what it will take to put that equipment back in storage.

The inference was clear: It

By MALCOLM BARR

WASHINGTON (AP) — A report sent to the attorney general today showed that the backlog of civil and criminal cases pending in U.S. district courts at the end of the last fiscal stood at a record 97,245.

The report, prepared by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, said the backlog rose 71 per cent from 1955 although the number of cases filed remained "relatively stable."

As part of his fight against the rising tide of crime in the country, President Nixon has called for more federal judges and prosecutors in order to dispose of the cases faster.

A companion report by the Judicial Conference of the United States also expressed concern about congested court calendars and suggested in addition to more judges:

— A careful and thorough analysis of the inventory of pending cases.

— Notification to defense lawyers of the need to complete trial preparations as promptly as possible.

— Stronger judicial control over requests for continuance.

The Administrative Office report indicated the backlog at the end of fiscal 1968 consisted of 14,763 criminal cases pending and 82,482 civil suits.

U.S., France
for Talks on Middle East

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has decided to accept a French proposal for early talks among great power representatives at the United Nations on ways to break the deadlock in Middle East peace efforts.

He hopes particularly for parallel action by the Soviet Union. A reply to the Paris government is due to go out this week. It is expected to make clear that while the United States sees hope in consultations with the Soviet Union, Britain and France its primary purpose is to move off dead center the U.N. peace-seeking efforts of Swedish Ambassador Gunnar Jarring.

In a related move, Nixon will send a friendly message to Gamal Abdel Nasser in the near future, replying to a note of congratulation he received from the Egyptian President.

His note will be designed to indicate that if Nasser, as reported, plans to propose resuming diplomatic relations with the United States he will find Nixon responsive.

While the Middle East crisis, and the Vietnam situation have dominated Nixon's foreign policy concerns during his first 10 days in office, he has also set in motion a plan to visit several Western European capitals in the next two months and confer with allied government chiefs.

Diplomatic soundings for the trip have been started, and the White House is due to make an announcement soon on his plans.

Nixon expects to visit Paris, site of the Vietnam peace talks, and meet with President Charles de Gaulle. Other capitals which figure in informed speculation are London, Bonn and Rome.

A meeting with Soviet leaders is not being considered at this time, although the President hopes to visit Moscow later on.

Meanwhile the President is projecting action on two other fronts involving Soviet-U.S. relations.

He plans to send to the Senate

Karloff, Film Horror Star, Dies

LONDON (AP) — Boris Karloff, the gentle monster who created Frankenstein in the movies and starred in a host of horror films, died Sunday in a hospital near London.

He was 81, had been an actor for 58 years and made more than 130 movies. He made his debut with a touring company in British Columbia in 1910 and his last movie last year in Britain.

A gentle, courteous Englishman despite the guise he presented in so many films, Karloff and his wife in recent years lived in an apartment in London's Chelsea district and in a cottage near the British capital.

Although long a resident of Hollywood, he never gave up his British citizenship and returned to Britain to live in 1959.

He was a polished performer who received critical acclaim for his 1936 Broadway role as a bishop in "The Lark," French playwright Jean Anouilh's saga of Joan of Arc. Karloff called the Broadway role, "the high point of my career as an actor."

He was born William Henry Pratt in Dulwich, England, on Nov. 23, 1887.

Turned down from World War I service because of a bad heart, Karloff emigrated to America where he toured in stock companies.

Karloff returned to England in 1951 because, he said, he was a rugby fan and "it's hard to find a game in the states."

But he was back in Hollywood in 1960 at age 73 to host a mystery television series, "Thriller."

He was married five times, the last in 1941 to Evelyn Helmar, who survives. He also is survived by his daughter Sara Jane, child of his fourth marriage to Mrs. Dorothy Stine Pratt.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Police charged the man with vagrancy. They asked him to empty his pockets. And Joseph Dunbar Wight pulled $187,118.62 out of his tattered clothing.

"I am one of those uncommon men," Wight said, "a gentleman."

Officers placed the 74-year-old man's fortune in a bank vault for safekeeping, then placed the man in a jail cell — also for safekeeping.

The charge officially was vagrancy — by sleeping in a bus station Sunday afternoon — but Wight could have gotten out of jail by paying $25 bond.

Two Israeli jets slammed a rocket barrage into a suspected Arab guerrilla position inside Jordan today, the Israeli army announced.

The Israelis said their were sent over Jordan shortly after an army patrol was fired on near the border settlement of Neve Ur, nine miles south of the Sea of Galilee. For about 15 minutes the jets strafed the desert Jordanian village of Mansiyya from which the army said the patrol was fired on.

No Israeli casualties were reported. It was the first time Israel has reported a jet attack on Jordan since Jan. 16.

The Lebanese-Israeli border also flared briefly when small arms fire was directed from Lebanon at the Israeli settlement of Zar'it, 12 miles east of the Mediterranean and a few hundred yards from the border, the Israeli army said.

An Israeli spokesman said that the Lebanese fire was returned and there were no casualties in the settlement.

In the occupied Gaza Strip, scene of violent rioting Sunday, an explosive charge demolished a small railway bridge near Rafiah.

About 100 Arab schoolgirls were injured in the Strip Sunday when Israeli police charged with nightsticks to break up a three-hour riot involving 4,000 girls. The girls were protesting the jailing of three Gaza women convicted by an Israeli court of spying and aiding guerrillas.

The girls spat, tussled with troops and tore down mud and stone walls outside five schools to throw pieces of them at the soldiers. While Arab men watched quietly, they brandished pictures of Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser and yelled: "Nasser! Nasser! Israel See ISRAEL HURLS

Beginning today the City is starting a drive to remove stray dogs that are running loose in the community. City Manager Garland Medders says that a man from the Street Department will be assigned to full time patrol of the city during the month of February. Any dog running at large that does not have a collar and a tag showing a current rabies vaccination will be impounded.

To recover a dog from the pound, the owner must pay for the feed, cost of transportation to a veterinarian, and the cost of a vaccination. Impounded animals are held for seven days and then given away or disposed of. Anyone wanting one for a pet may have it, after it has been uncalled for for this length of time, by paying for the feed and a vaccination, which it must have before it will be turned over to them.

If anyone bothered by stray dogs has an opportunity to look one in the yard, or perhaps in the garage, and will call the Street Department office at Fair Park, someone will call for it as soon as possible. Men in the Street Department say this is sometimes a big help, since some strays are very hard to catch.

Mixed Drink
Bill Action
in Assembly

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A busy week appears to be in store for the Arkansas General Assembly this week with action expected on at least two major bills.

The House convened at 1 p.m. today and the Senate at 1:30 p.m.

Both houses are expected to act on each other's merger bills this week. Each house has passed its version of a bill that would merge the University of Arkansas with Little Rock University.

The Senate bill now is on the House calendar and could have been brought up today. The House bill has been referred to the Senate Education Committee.

There is a possibility that the House will act this week on the administration's local option mixed drink bill. The House Revenue and Taxation Committee completed a hearing on it last week.

A mixed drink bill has not been introduced in the Senate, but one is expected to make it to the hopper this week. Its chances of passage are said to be better in the Senate than in the House.

However, Rep. Sterling R. Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock, the House majority leader, predicted last week that a mixed drink bill would be passed by this session of the legislature.

The Senate also might take up SB 11, a bill that would repeal the use tax exemption granted public utilities, public communications and public transportation companies. The state Revenue Department said the bill would produce about $30 million a year, but some senators and witnesses before the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee, which completed hearings on the bill last week, said they doubted it would produce that much.

The House Revenue and Taxation Committee was to meet at 10 a.m. today for a public hearing on SB 30 to levy a 1½-cent tax on life insurance premiums. The committee met again at 11 a.m. for a public hearing on HB 99 to repeal the state Fair Trade and Liquor Law.

The Senate Efficiency Committee and the Senate Cities and Towns Committee were to meet at 10 a.m. today.

The Senate also may begin to take up administration appointments for confirmation this week.

Sen. Morrell Gathright of Pine Bluff, president pro tempore of the Senate, has asked each senator to give him the names of those appointees that

BLONDIE

By PAUL DUDLEY WHITE
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

BOSTON—(NEA)—My devotion to walking and bicycling has not been an accidental association. Rather, it signifies my deep feeling of the importance of the use of the leg muscles as an integral part of the maintenance of a proper circulation, as well as a deterrent to cardiovascular disease.

Studies have shown, and this may come as something of a surprise, that when a person is walking about 30 per cent of the circulation of the blood is carried on by the leg muscles and the remaining portion by the heart.

In using the leg muscles, the blood is being pushed upward—against the law of gravity—through the body and into the heart, with the great help of the valves with which nature endowed our veins.

Vigorous leg muscle exercise is probably one of the best methods known to keep the veins clear and to prevent the formation of blood clots.

While my name has frequently and agreeably been associated with bicycle riding, actually I hold no brief for any particular form of physical exercise, just so long as use of the leg muscles figures in it. Walking is available for everyone at any age and at any time of day.

Also, walking is the simplest, least expensive form of exercise. I suggest a pace of three to four miles an hour, and a minimum of an hour a day, or seven hours a week if it can't be done on a daily basis, for the maintenance of good circulation. Twice this length of time and distance would be better, but it's not always possible. An hour a day is a "must."

Tennis, golf without a cart, swimming, skiing, gardening, mountain climbing and dancing (but not during or right after dinner) are other commendable forms of exercise involving the legs.

Many people neglect to give their legs proper exercise, excusing themselves on the basis that their schedules don't allow sufficient time.

These people should climb a couple of flights of stairs, rather than riding the elevator. Or they should drive the car part way to work, park it a mile or two away and walk the rest of the way. Or both.

Jogging has become increasingly popular in recent years among males and females of all ages. This is good in its place and under proper medical supervision. Anyone who is contemplating the start of a jogging program should check first with his physician.

Exercise in the open air is as a rule more pleasant and, therefore, probably more beneficial than when done indoors. This is true particularly with reference to middie-aged and older men, many of whom currently are puffing their ways laboriously around dusty, indoor tracks without benefit of adequate medical guidance.

The ironic pity of this situation is that these men have allowed themselves to get into such shape as to require rehabilitation at this stage of their lives. Proper education and training, along with physical exercise as part of their teen-age lives, would not make it necessary to begin it now in middle age. It should already have been established as a habit.

While we're on the subject of youth, let me pass on three recommendations I recently made to a class of cadets at West Point: First, don't put on any weight after the age of 22; second, keep physically active all through life; third, don't smoke cigarettes.

These suggestions are repeated when I speak before older audiences, which are also advised to eat a proper diet (fewer saturated fats and high-cholesterol foods) and to undergo periodic physical checkups so that immediate treatment may be begun for any high blood pressure or diabetes the doctor may find.

Years ago, advice such as I have outlined here was unnecessary. Much of the economy was agrarian, the country rural. Men labored at their work. When they went somewhere, they walked. And the average diet was not so rich. They were healthier than we are today, except for infections.

While modern inventions have brought convenience, less work and more speed, they have contributed to the neglect, through the disuse of muscles, of man's health.

We wouldn't want all to become laborers again, so we must compromise. We must fit into our lives a program of adequate muscle use. Man is not yet all brain.

Missile Plan a Move to Deter Russia

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey says the Johnson administration approved a U.S. missile defense to "quicken the interest of the Soviet Union" in strategic arms negotiations.

"I have always been skeptical in my own mind about the security value of deploying an ABM (antiballistic missile) system," Humphrey says in an introductory to a report on the missile shield controversy.

"I share the reservations stated by Secretary (Robert S.) McNamara when he announced the ABM deployment in 1967.

"At the same time, I understood the reasons why the President felt the preparations for a limited deployment might quicken the interest of the Soviet Union in meaningful negotiations on the strategic arms race, provided we place top priority on the urgent necessity of reaching an agreement on the ABM issue," Humphrey stated.

In major pronouncements, mainly by McNamara, the Johnson administration insisted the antimissile defense was designed to guard against the threat of a nuclear-armed Red China in the 1970s.

Critics of the system now being built, the $5.5-billion Sentinel defense, have contended, however, that it is merely first step toward a $40 billion anti-Soviet shield.

Time and again Humphrey spoke of the Soviet nuclear threat while making only one passing reference to Red China's "overt hostility."

His remarks were in a report on antimissile pros and cons published by the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, a nonprofit educational group which claims 85,000 members.

For his part, Humphrey said new emphasis ought to be put on ironing out an arms limitation pact with the Soviets, rather than escalating the strategic race with more and fancier offensive and defensive weapons.

Humphrey said Johnson got conflicting advice on antimissile capabilities and limitations, and President Richard M. Nixon will inherit the same situation.

"He will receive, as we did in the Johnson administration, directly conflicting testimony from his scientific advisers as to the capability of the proposed antimissile defenses; and he will receive conflicting intelligence estimates as to the Russians' capability to penetrate our defenses, or shield themselves against our nuclear missiles."

New Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird suggested in a news conference last week that work on the Sentinel should be continued as a bargaining item for use in any U.S. negotiating with the Soviets on strategic weapons.

Humphrey implied he thinks the bargaining aspect would be Sentinel's chief value.

"In this light, ABM might yet provide a great service in advancing the strategic arms negotiations if, having taken the system to this stage of development, we set it aside as a symbol of our determination to halt the arms race where it is, and turn it back if we can," Humphrey said.

4 Killed in Air Crash at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Four persons were killed late Sunday afternoon when their single-engine Piper Cherokee 140 crashed and burned in a pecan grove about 15 miles southeast of here near Scott.

Three of the victims were identified late Sunday night. They were Ron Jeffery, 24, of North Little Rock, the pilot; Phillis Offen, 26, and Patty Offen, 20, sisters from Little Rock. Police said the fourth victim was from out of state and withheld his name, pending notification of next of kin.

A spokesman at Arkansas Aviation Sales, Inc., of Little Rock said the pilot rented the plane about 3:30 p.m. and told him he would return "in about an hour." The spokesman said he told him he was just going to "fly around for awhile." The crash occurred about 4 p.m.

Billy Smith, who lives about 100 yards from the scene of the crash, said he heard the plane's engine sputter and looked out the window and saw the craft flying low over the trees.

"It was that motor cutting up like that that made me look out," Smith said. "The engine was coughing and sputtering and the plane was trailing smoke."

He said as the plane was just over the treetops, it nosed over and went straight into the ground. It burst into flames on impact, he said.

China Aide Defects to the U.S.A.

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — The Red Chinese envoy who defected in the Netherlands is believed to be in the United States.

Dutch officials said Liao Hoshu, who was temporary charge d'affaires in the Hague, was flown to Bonn last week for interrogation by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency about Chinese spying activities in Western Europe. The Dutch said they expected Liao to be flown to the United States Sunday.

West German officials and U.S. sources in Bonn said Sunday they did not know where Liao was.

Liao, the first Red Chinese diplomat known to have gone over to the West, took refuge with the Dutch on Jan. 24.

In one of his routine visits to the Dutch Foreign Ministry several months ago, Liao indicated he wanted to defect as soon as his wife and children were safely out of China. He told the Dutch he had been ordered home to account for the death in the Hague in 1966 of a Chinese scientist said to have sold a secret nerve gas formula to U.S. agents.

Dutch officials approached Romanian diplomats because they have good contacts in Peking. Two weeks ago at a reception at the Romanian Embassy, Liao learned that his family was safe in Hong Kong.

Dutch Justice Minister C.H.F. Polak is said to have told the parliamentary committee for justice and foreign affairs that Liao "knows an unbelievable lot." The minister said the government did not seek intelligence from Liao because it feared retaliatory measures against the Dutch charge d'affaires in Peking.

The Chinese scientist whose death Peking reportedly wanted

Liao to explain was Hsu Tsu-tsai, a rocket expert visiting the Netherlands for an industrial congress. He was found injured outside the Chinese Embassy and was taken to a hospital with a fractured skull and spinal injuries. One report said Hsu had been hit by a car, another that he had been thrown out a window.

Chinese agents abducted him from the hospital and took him to the legation where he died on July 16, 1966. Liao participated in the abduction but could not be prosecuted because he had diplomatic immunity. There has been no explanation why Peking waited more than two years before summoning Liao home to report.

Smith and Bergey Top Athletes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Billy Ray Smith of the Baltimore Colts and Bill Bergey of Arkansas State University were named Arkansas' top professional and amateur athletes of the year Saturday night.

Smith and Bergey were selected at the Charles T. Meyer Foundation awards banquet here.

Bergey, a linebacker for ASU this season, was selected as a first-team small college All-American. He was drafted last week in the second round by Cincinnati in the pro football draft.

Smith, former University of Arkansas standout, is a defensive lineman for the Colts, who won the National Football League title this season.

Bergey and Smith were selected by a panel of Arkansas sports writers.

Nixon Studies City, Mideast Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon called his Urban Affairs Council to another meeting in the White House today as he continued formulating plans to deal with the problems of the nation's cities.

In the first meeting Jan. 23, the eight-man team of Cabinet members and presidential advisers dispensed of organizational matters, leaving today's session open to consider substantive issues.

The emphasis on urban and other domestic matters underlined by scheduled visits to the Housing and Urban Development and the Agriculture Department, followed a weekend in which the President spent much time on foreign affairs.

With the explosive Middle East on his mind, Nixon visited with Dwight D. Eisenhower Sunday at Walter Reed Hospital to get the former president's view on the Arab-Israeli crisis.

Following the session with the convalescing Eisenhower, Nixon said he had gotten several valuable suggestions and "we are considering all the initiatives we might take to defuse the situation" in the Middle East.

The President did not elaborate.

The National Security Council also met Saturday and discussed the Arab-Israeli situation at length, but there were no conclusions announced.

A member of the Urban Affairs Council, Cabinet officer George Romney, indicated the line his agency will take in trying to cure urban ills.

Romney, secretary of Housing and Urban Development, said he hopes to come up with a program to provide more homes for low-income families.

Concurring with estimates that 26 million new homes will be needed in the United States over the next decade, Romney, however, said "I don't think the programs that we have at present will achieve these goals." He indicated his agency hopes to come up with new ways to meet the shortage.

Another Council staff member, presidential assistant Daniel P. Moynihan, indicated Sunday that welfare payments should continue as a way to help solve urban problems.

Welfare payments should not be considered handouts, he said, but investments that will help make the nation stable, prosperous and happy.

Moynihan, a sociologist before being appointed a Nixon aide, also called for an end to the nation's unemployment. He said his view on the jobless rate were his own and not necessarily those of the White House.

Romney was interviewed on NBC's TV-radio program, "Meet the Press," and Moynihan appeared on the "Evans-Novak Report" of Metromedia television.

Congressional Pay Increase Touchy Issue

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says maneuvering by congressmen trying to prevent a vote on increasing their own pay "makes us look bad."

"The sooner we face up to it, the better it will be for all concerned," Mansfield said in an interview. He restated his support for the increase from $30,000 a year to $42,500 for members of Congress.

COURT JAM

cal data in the report, is 5.8 months. This varies from a high of 22.8 months in the Eastern District of New York to 1.4 months in the Western District of Kentucky.

Defense lawyers and U.S. attorneys generally consider 4 to 6 weeks as a maximum that a person should wait jury trial.

The following figures show the median time defendants await jury trial in federal courts across the nation, with the median time it takes to process guilty pleas in parentheses:

First circuit, 7.8 months (3 months); Second circuit, 10.5 (3.1); third circuit 9 (5.3); fourth circuit 4.6 (1.0); fifth circuit 6.3 (1.8); sixth circuit 4.0 (2.8); seventh circuit 9.3 (3.5); eighth circuit 5.5 (2.1); ninth circuit 4.6 (1.9); tenth circuit 3.4 (1.7) and the District of Columbia 10.1 (8.8).

The median for the 89 districts of the tenth district and the District of Columbia is a 5.8 month wait for jury trial, a wait of 4.6 months for trial without jury and a wait of 2.2 months to enter a guilty plea.

Providing additional headaches for court administrators and judges across the nation are the increasing numbers of civil cases. More than 10 per cent of these have been pending nearly three years.

A backlog of cases has grown too in the U.S. courts of appeal. Fifty-three per cent of appeals stem from criminal actions and applications for habeas corpus, the report said.

The ever-increasing workload of the appeals courts over the decade is illustrated by the 3,889 new appeals filed in 1960, compared with the 9,116 filed in 1968.

Hickel Eyes California Oil Threat

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — As westward winds pushed a spreading ocean oil slick away from Southern California beaches, Secretary of the Interior Walter J. Hickel arrived saying he'll do "what has to be done."

"I'm not here making any charges," Hickel said Sunday night after a flight from Washington, "only to do for the general welfare what has to be done." He has been under pressure by conservation groups to halt any damage to wildlife, fish and beaches.

Hickel was expected to take charge of the six-day-old battle to cap the undersea well and disperse an estimated 126,000 gallons of floating oil.

Several government agencies were working with Union Oil Co., which drilled the well under a federal case in efforts to avoid heavy loss of sea life and major damage to $2,000-per-foot beachfront property.

The prospects "appear encouraging" if there is no sudden shift in weather, the Coast Guard said Sunday. Some of the oil was moving into open sea.

Under contract to Union Oil, a private company erected floating plastic fences in an effort to catch the heaviest accumulation of oil between the mainland and a drilling platform.

The plastic material, weighted with sand, was in the form of a big "V" just east of the platform on which oil crews worked to seal off the underground pressure responsible for the leak flowing at 21,000 gallons a day. Other crews were drilling a second hole from a rig 1,000 feet away to reduce the pressure.

South of Anacapa Island, heavy oil extended for a half-mile. A few light slicks drifted to within 100 yards of Capintaria State Park beach south of here, and fingers of oil reached land.

Conservationists said they feared thousands of sea birds were fatally smeared with oil, which they eat while preening their feathers. California Fish and Game Department spokesmen said 70 oil-smeared birds had been taken to special centers for treatment and that 47 of these survived.

Fred Hartley, Union Oil's president, told newsmen that drilling mud would be pumped into the ruptured well shaft to seal it. "I think it will take two or three weeks," he said.

White Boy Dies in Race Incident

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — A 17-year-old white youth was beaten to death Sunday night in the balcony of a slum-area theater that was featuring a film dealing with racial violence.

Police have not apprehended any suspects in the death, but said their reports indicated the attackers were Negroes.

The youth, David J. Hlgen of nearby Colonie, died before he reached a nearby hospital.

The Palace Theater, in an area designated for urban renewal about 10 blocks from the state Capitol, was half-filled at 9 p.m., the time of the attack. The feature film, "Uptight," was not being shown. The audience was watching a second feature, on skydiving. A later showing of "Uptight" was canceled and the theater was closed by police at 10 p.m. A crowd of moviegoers who gathered in front demanding refunds was dispersed by police.

"Uptight" an updated version of the Irish revolution film "The Informer," portrays discord in the slums. The film has a large Negro cast.

A youth who said he was with the dead boy told police he thought the boy was struck on the head by what appeared to be a pipe. Police also questioned two other companions.

Witness at Spa Cited on Contempt

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. Maxine Temple Jones, 50, of Hot Springs, considered a key witness in a bribery trial of a former Mississippi official, has been sentenced to 10 days in jail here for contempt of court.

The contempt charge was filed after she allegedly failed to appear for a jury trial here. Jurors were to have heard her appeal of a six-month sentence for keeping a house of prostitution. She was sentenced Friday.

Mrs. Jones told newsmen Saturday that she was beaten Monday at her mother-in-law's home in Texarkana and told not to return to Mississippi, where she had lived previously.

She said four men told her that this was "just a little bit" of what would happen to her if she returned. Mrs. Jones said she was treated for head injuries at a Texarkana hospital and released. Texarkana police said they had not received a complaint about the incident.

The Mississippi Highway Patrol said that Mrs. Jones had telephoned them a complaint either Monday or Tuesday concerning the alleged beating. A patrol officer said he advised her to report the incident to Texarkana officials.

She was to have returned to Jackson, Miss., Saturday for a pre-trial conference in a bribery charge against Martin Frayley, former Mississippi Parole Board chairman.

S. Vietnam to Be Given 300 'Copters

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States will give South Vietnam about 300 modern helicopters as part of a plan to prepare Saigon's army and air force to stand on their own when the American military role is reduced and ultimately ended.

Sources said equipping the South Vietnamese with about 17 squadrons of helicopters, most of them transports but some armed ships, will start soon and take a couple of years.

The United States also will train more Vietnamese to fly and maintain the choppers.

The decision to provide the helicopters was made by the Johnson administration, but it is expected to be carried forward by President Nixon.

Many details are being kept secret, but the Armed Forces Journal said a total of $98 million for the project is included in the 1969 supplemental budget and the 1970 defense budget.

Currently, there are more than 3,000 American helicopters in Vietnam, many used to carry South Vietnamese soldiers into battle areas inaccessible by ground.

Some American officers felt that unless the United States moves to furnish the South Vietnamese with sufficient helicopters of their own, the U.S. departure would mean Saigon's troops would be unable to range much beyond the roads.

This, U.S. officers contended, would mean that control of the countryside would fall virtually uncontested to the Viet Cong.

The South Vietnamese air force, which operates that country's helicopters, now has four squadrons totaling about 75 older-model H34 machines.

The South Vietnamese will now get the UH1, nicknamed the "Huey," a machine which came into its own in the Vietnam war.

Provision of new helicopters is part of an extensive U.S. effort to modernize Vietnamese arms and equipment so the war can be "de-Americanized." This effort is costing between $300 million and $400 million a year.

Already accomplished is the rearming of the more than 155 infantry battalions of the regular South Vietnamese forces with lightweight, high-velocity M16 rifles.

The militia, which bears the brunt of much of the fighting with the Viet Cong, is starting to get the M16.

The United States also is furnishing South Vietnamese forces better machineguns, mortars, grenade-launchers, radios and trucks.

Hawkins' Land Claim Is Upheld

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today affirmed a lower court decision in which Sheriff Marlin Hawkins of Morrilton and others were awarded more than $55,000 for 11.01 acres of land taken by the state Highway Department.

The Highway Commission appealed from an opinion issued in Circuit Court in Conway County.

Associate Justices George Rose Smith and Lyle Brown dissented.

In the lower court, W. E. Hayes placed the value at $31,250 and said damage should be $3,250. Robert E. Hamilton said the taking of the acreage actually increased the value of the property that remained in Hawkins' possession. He said the land valuation was $27,000 before the Highway Department took it and was worth $81,000 after the department made its claim. He said Hawkins benefitted to the tune of $54,000 by the department's action and should not be awarded any damages. Hayes and Hamilton were expert witnesses for the Highway Commission. Hawkins 5th grad LR22.

Hawkins contended that the 11 acres were taken out of an 84-acre tract partially developed as a subdivision.

He testified to damages of $77,500 based on a "before and after" valuation of $237,000 and $159,500.

Hawkins also produced two experts who testified about the value of the land, and their figures were higher than those of Hayes and Hamilton, who were the expert witnesses for the state Highway Department.

However, neither of Hawkins' witnesses placed the value of the land as high as the sheriff did.

Hawkins' witnesses included C. V. Barnes, who arrived at land valuations of $203,000 and $157,500 before and after the department took the land. He placed damages at $45,500. The other witness for Hawkins was Lloyd Pearce, who said damages should total $44,500 based on the value of the land before and after the department took some of the acreage. He said the value of the land was $212,000 before the department's action and $167,500 afterward.

In the dissenting opinion,

Smith said, "If we leave the realm of opinion and took only to actual facts established by uncontradicted evidence in the record, it is an inescapable conclusion that the Highway Department is being compelled to pay an unconscionable price for the land."

Smith said that Hawkins purchased 117 acres in 1960 for $13,000, thereby paying $111 per acre for property that the Circuit Court jury decided was worth $5,000 per acre.

The opinion came in a 4-3 verdict. Smith and Brown said the case should be remanded for a new trial, but Associate Justice J. Fred Jones said he would grant damages of $9,500.

SERVICE CHIEFS in the Nixon administration are, top to bottom, John Chafee, secretary of the Navy; Stanley R. Resor, secretary of the Army; and Robert C. Seamans Jr., secretary of the Air Force. Resor is a holdover from the Johnson administration. Chafee is the former governor of Rhode Island and Seamans is former deputy administrator of NASA.

they wish considered for confirmation at the Senate's first consideration of the 277 appointments that are to come before it.

Cathright told the senators that "because it is not practical to take up all 277 appointments in one sitting, may I suggest you submit not to exceed one half of the appointments from your district for our first sitting."

Also, Sen. John F. Glibson of Dermott was scheduled to present to the Senate today a plan to revise the present prison setup.

The plan calls for construction of a maximum security unit at Cummins, acquisition of the training school at Brinkley, which was closed recently, and changing Tucker Prison Farm into an intermediate reformatory.

The plan calls for about $1.7 million for the biennium, based on anticipated income from prison crops of $1.8 million annually.

The reformatory would be used by first offenders between the ages of 18 and 21. Cummins would be for inmates over 21, whose principal work would be agricultural.

The training school near Brinkley would be used as a pre-release center for inmates whose behavior presented no problem before completing their sentences.

More than tactical considerations are involved in the Army's resistance to losing more men. The dual-based concept of keeping troops in the United States and flying them to Europe when needed never has been popular with the West Germans, who have been asked to beef up their own forces. The population has been impressed with the deploying of 17,000 men and 4,500 vehicles for Carbine Ice, in mud and mire near the Czechoslovak border. The last half of the transatlantic airlift, in which C141 Starlifter jets landed 5,100 men in 33

Monday, February 3, 1969 hours impressed the technically minded Germans immensely. But some press comments have run from critical to caustic, with the writers seeming to feel that it was too little and too late to have much political impact in the wake of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia. What many Germans were looking for in the wake of the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia was a demonstration of something new in response to the new tactical threat the Red Army poses to Western Europe generally, and to West Germany in particular.
